Rules and Regulations.

I. The Selkirk Club shall consist of those who have signed the Roll, and such others as may hereafter be elected, in accordance with the rules and regulations thereof, the number of members not to exceed five hundred.

II. The entrance money to be paid on admission to membership of the club, shall be five dollars, and the annual subscription five dollars, to those members who reside in the City of Winnipeg, and for those resident outside of Winnipeg, half those amounts. The subscription to be paid on or before the first day of July in each year.

III. Each candidate for admission must be proposed by one member of the Club, and seconded by another, and the names both of the candidate, and of the proposer, and seconder, must be entered at the same time in the book of candidates.

IV. The election of members shall be made by the committee and by ballot; eight to be a quorum, and two black balls to exclude.

V. The names of candidates to be taken in the order in which they are inserted in the book.

VI. On the admission of each new member, the Secretary shall notify the same to him (in duplicate if abroad) furnishing him also with a copy of the rules of the Club, and requesting him to remit the amount of his entrance money and subscription.

VII. As the payment of these sums will entitle a member to enjoy every benefit the club can impart, so is his acquiescence in the rules furnished to him thereby distinctly implied.

VIII. No newly elected member shall be eligible to participate in any of the advantages or privileges of the Club until he has paid his entrance and subscription money.

IX. If such new member does not, in compliance with the preceding rule, pay the sum therein specified, within the space of one month from the day of his admission to the Club, if he be in Manitoba, three months if elsewhere in Canada, and of six months if abroad, the Secretary shall report accordingly to the committee, who shall cause his name to be erased from the list of members, unless he can account for the delay to the satisfaction of the committee.

X. The name of every member failing to pay his annual subscription due on the first of July shall be posted up in the Club, on the 1st of September following, notice of which shall be sent to him by the Secretary, and if the subscription is not paid on or before the 1st of October then next, he shall cease to be a member of the Club, and his name shall be erased from the books, but he may be re-admitted by the committee, upon assigning reasons which they shall deem satisfactory for his failure of payment.

XI. All subscriptions shall be paid to the Treasurer of the Club.

XII. The committee shall consist of fifteen members who for the 1st year shall be elected from those members who have paid their subscriptions up to date of election.

XIII. All the concerns of the Club, including the leasing of a suitable house, purchase of furniture, etc., and the procuring by degrees a proper collection of books, maps, periodicals and publications shall be managed by the said committee, they shall also have the power to appoint servants of the Club and shall name their own days of meeting for the transaction of business, at which meeting five shall form a quorum.

XIV. In the event of any vacancies occurring in the committee after the annual election on the first Wednesday in July, the committee itself shall have the power of filling them up.

XV. Any infraction of the Rules and Regulations of the Club shall be taken immediate cognizance of by the committee.

XVI. The committee may call an extraordinary general meeting of the Club, and shall call one, on the written requisition of 12 members, not being of the committee, giving fourteen days notice in either case, specifying the object, and confining their discussion to that object only.

XVII. No new rule, nor alteration of any old rule, shall be made at any extraordinary general meeting, unless there are at least twenty-five members present, and without there being the sanction of two-thirds of the same. It shall be competent, however, for any member to propose at the annual meeting of the Club, any new rule, or regulation, or any alteration of an old rule, having posted notice thereof at least a fortnight previous; when, in the event of the same being adopted by two-thirds of the members then present, it shall become binding on the Club.

XVIII. The committee shall from their number elect a chairman and appoint a secretary, a treasurer, and a corresponding secretary from the members of the Club.

XIX. The committee may make rules for the admission of visitors, which rules shall be in force until the next annual meeting.

XX. There shall be an annual meeting of the Club on the first Wednesday of July, (except the same be a statutory holiday, then to be held on the day after,) for the purpose of electing the committee for the succeeding year, and receiving a report and abstract of the state of the accounts and general concerns of the Club for the past year, from the committee, together with an estimate of the receipts and disbursements for the current year—which report, abstract and estimates shall be placed in the Club room one week, at least, before the said meeting, and left there afterwards for the inspection of members and for the purpose of deciding on such propositions as may have been submitted, and for the purpose of passing the said accounts.

The chair to be taken at such hour as the committee shall decide.

XXI. No member shall take away from the Club upon any pretence whatever, any newspaper, pamphlet, book or other article the property of the Club.

XXII. Any cause of complaint that may arise is to be written and signed by the member so complaining, which complaint must be specially noticed by the committee; and any inattention, or improper conduct, of a servant, is to be stated by letter, bearing the signature of such member, which letter, being put into the Secretary's box, must be laid before the committee at its next meeting.

XXIII. All members are to pay their bills for every expense they incur in the Club before they leave the house, the steward having positive orders not to open accounts with any individual, and being under the necessity of accounting to the committee weekly for all monies passing through his hands.

XXIV. It shall be the duty of the committee in case any circumstances should occur likely to endanger the welfare and good order of the Club, to call a general meeting, giving eight days notice, and in the event of its being voted at that meeting by two-thirds of the persons present, to be decided by ballot, that the name of any member or members should be removed from the Club, their subscriptions for the current year shall be returned and he or they shall cease to belong to the Club, or have any interest in, or claim to any of the property of the Club.

XXV. The members of the Club are expected to communicate their addresses from time to time to the Secretary.

XXVI. These rules and regulations shall be printed, and a copy transmitted to every member of the Club, by the Secretary.
